RE: TESTIMONIAL FOR JOHANNA LUKAS

This letter serves as a testimonial for Ms Johanna Lukas, a holder of a diploma in Animal and Health from UNAM Katima mulilo campus. Johanna was attached on voluntary basis at Zambezi Veterinary Clinic from January 2021 up to November 2021- the same time she was doing her final year for her Diploma. She utilized her spare time, weekends, holidays to volunteer at the clinic.

As a volunteer, she was involved in various veterinary work some of which is highlighted below:

- Small animal (cats and dogs)- diagnosis, treatment and client advice
- Large animal (mainly cattle)- disease investigations, diagnosis, treatment, control and client advice
- Disease outbreaks (eg Lumpy Skin Disease) their control and eradication
- Advising Livestock farmers on proper livestock rearing- tick control, proper vaccinations etc
- Sample collection for laboratory diagnosis, post mortems and result analysis
- Do small animal (dogs and cats) vaccinations for example rabies, 5 in 1 vaccinations
- Do wound management in animals presented with wounds
- Do fracture management in animals that are presented with broken bones
- Chicken examination, diagnosis, treatment and vaccination
- Admin work which include invoicing clients, following up on clients, booking appointments for clients

Johanna is hardworking, punctual and innovative. She has good communication skills and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend her for any position in any organisation.

Thank you

DR. J Yule
