TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sirs/Madams

REQUEST FOR INTERNSHIP IN RESPECT OF IUM STUDENT MR INYAMBO
INOCK TAWANA STUDENT NUMBER IUM 180064681

In partial fulfilment of the requirements leading to the award of the IUM offered Bachelors qualifications, students, in 3rd year of study are required to undergo compulsory credit bearing Internship for periods not more than 3 months to cover 100 hours equivalent to 10 credits.

Purpose/Objective of Internship. The objective of this on-job training (placement) is to expose the students to a work environment that gives students the opportunity to amalgamate theory and practice thereby shaping them (students) into graduates who will make a difference in commerce and industry. The objective is to expose the students to the real world of industrial and commerce.

Mr Inyambo Inock Tawana is registered and studying for a Bachelor of Finance (BOFM). Assuming our student Inyambo lands the opportunity to practice with your organisation, you may want to be advised that his areas of interest are, inter-alia; budgeting, cash flow projections, reconciliations, costing, auditing, Taxation, Preparation of Management and financial reports/statements, Investments, financial planning etc.

Structure of Internship: We will be most grateful to receive a report from your organisation regarding the performance of the above student at the end of the attachment. The report may cover, among other things, conduct, presentation, grasp of practical concepts in the student's areas of interest highlighted above. The report will constitute 50% of the student's relevant placement assessment mark. The other 50% will come from the report to be prepared by the student on what the student learnt during internship/placement. For further enquiries contact the undersigned.

Yours Sincerely,

Mr Stanley D. Lyatumba
