

DONNY g. + BONNY d.

The Cats from Santa Cruz County...

A grey cat was plopped in the midst of a spread of sand on a mountain top. In California.

It wasn't that SOMEONE had plopped him there. And, it wasn't as though SOMETHING had plopped him there. He plopped himself.

What a lucky cat.

That would be - to think for him.

However, "Not Really." He thought for himself.

His name was DONNY g.
