TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Dear Sir/Madam

This letter serves to testify that Ms Albertina Mumbala Shiwale, Identification number 98111600445 is a 3rd year student from the Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST), did 4 weeks attachment at Central Veterinary Laboratory (CVL). She was attached at Clinical Microbiology Section for 2 weeks and at Food Hygiene section for another 2 weeks as from 08th February 2021 to 05 March 2021.

During her stay, she has been exposed and learnt a lot of activities pertaining to veterinary and general clinical microbiology diagnostic services. Her routine activities were recording of equipment's temperatures, cleaning of working bench and safe cabinet, samples culturing, plates reading, staining and viewing of slide smears, biochemical tests, filling of tracking sheets and disease reporting forms. At Food hygiene, her daily activities were bench decontamination, different medium preparations and collection of samples from sample reception. She has participated in testing of pathogens such as Escherichia coli, Salmonella, Staphylococcus spp, and enterobactericeae from food samples.

Albertina is a well-mannered, dedicated and committed person, who does her work willingly and professionally. During her stay, she demonstrated to be reliable and passionate towards her responsibilities. She is a team player, who always eager to offer helping hand to others. I am confident that she has acquired laboratory skills and knowledge related to clinical microbiology, food hygiene and that of general laboratory practise.

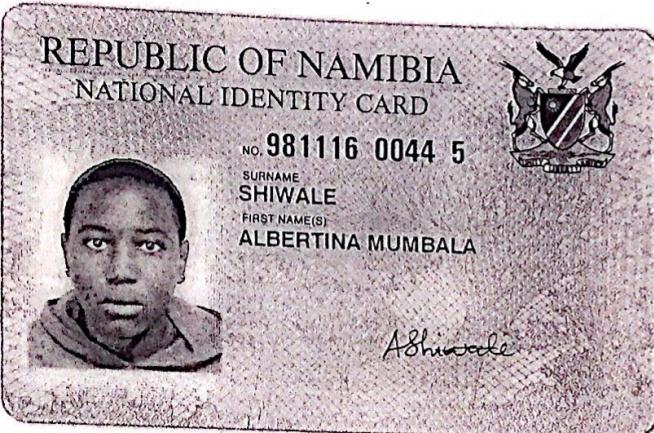

Based on her capabilities, she will be a valuable asset to your organisation and hence I have no doubt recommending her for any job opportunity that might arise in the field of her interest. Our office wishes her strength and success in her future endeavours.

Sincerely,
